EDUCATE EMPOWER ENGAGE

ABOUT US

At Constituting America, we educate and empower America's rising generations. We offer free interactive presentations to schools, teaching students of all ages how to utilize their government using the "tools in their toolbox" found in the Constitution, and how to have a "civil, civic conversation." Our nationwide scholarship contest is unique: we are the only Constitutional education foundation to professionally promote the works of our winning students on television, the radio, movie theaters, and publications. Our prestigious 90 -day annual online study draws Constitutional scholars and professors from across the nation into conversation with the general public. Through these programs, Constituting America is keeping the torch of liberty ablaze--one student at a time.

GEORGE WASHINGTON SPEAKING INITIATIVE

Constituting America's engaging, interactive presentation, free to all schools, is designed to educate students of all ages on the nonpartisan relevancy of the U.S. Constitution and empower students to utilize the tools given to them by the Constitution to effect meaningful change in their government. Constituting America is able to reach schools nationwide through use of GoogleHangout in addition to our in-person presentations.

The George Washington Speaking Initiative is now a District Initiative. This fall, Janine is presenting to all of our 12th and 8th grade scholars at our 126 middle school and 40 high school classrooms. 99Michelle Neyrey

PROMOTION OF STUDENT WINNING WORKS

Constituting America is unique in that we utilize the works created by students to promote the Constitution and, in turn, propel the students' careers. Through professional promotion, these winning short films play at film festivals, public service announcements air on television stations, essays are printed in newspapers and magazines, and songs play on radio stations.

66It's amazing that the short PSA I wrote while sitting in my bedroom is now being promoted to TV stations across the nation! I love how Constituting America not only promotes the work of their winners, but also genuinely cares about equipping them with knowledge for their futures. 99

FOUNDING FATHER FORUMS DEBUT

Constituting America's newest initiative, our Founding Father Forums, showcase actor historians from American Historical Theatre in Philadelphia who bring history to life for adults and students. In 2016 & 2017, our four Founding Father Forums presented debates & dialogues between our founding fathers & mothers in an educational and entertaining manner to enthralled audiences across Texas.

6[The Founding Father Forum] left my 50 students...believing they were actually watching these two Founding Fathers in a debate... This is an excellent opportunity for students, educators and historians alike to get a true glimpse of what these two Founding Fathers thought and how they interacted. 99
