Entrant and their parent/guardian represent and warrant that the entry is an original work and does not infringe on the intellectual property rights of any third party, is unpublished (in any form or medium) and has not won an award. Constituting America may edit any entries for grammar, modify for style only, and entrant and their parent/guardian hereby grant Constituting America a license to record the song, distribute submitted material to third parties for purposes of publication or production, to publicize the contest, with no additional notification or permission of the entrant or parent/guardian. Submitted material will only be used to further the educational mission and goals of Constituting America (please see Section VI for a Notice to Parents and Privacy Policy), including, but not limited to, featuring the song, speech, PSA and short film on the Constituting America website, and putting them on a DVD for promotional distribution for the contest. Constituting America also reserves the right to produce or sell any “app” submitted, and to incorporate any computer software into our existing website.

Section II – Qualifications

The Graduate/Law School Contest is open to all United States citizens or legal residents who are students enrolled in a graduate school or law school, carrying 9 hours or more, seeking a graduate or law degree, age 18 and above at the time of entry.

Students must attend school in one of the 50 States, District of Columbia, all U.S. Territories, or American Armed Forces Schools abroad.

Section III – Speech and Short Film Instructions

All entries that utilize copyrighted music, film clips or photos MUST obtain the proper licensing permissions IN ADVANCE of submitting the entry, in order to be considered.

1. Speech Background: The Framers of the Constitution carefully constructed it to protect individual liberty and to restrain the power of the federal government. The Constitution is comprised of seven Articles which define and describe:

- the three branches of the federal government,
- the relationship between the federal government and the states,
- various other aspects of the Constitution as the supreme law of the land and its preservation and amendment process.

In recent history, there have been many examples of the Constitution not being followed, as well as many instances of the Constitution being upheld and the separation of powers being enforced as one branch of government acts as a “check” on another branch’s power.

Speech Topic: In your speech, explain each of the seven Articles of the Constitution, and then:

- describe one recent example of the Constitution being ignored/an example of a branch of government exceeding its constitutional limits, and cite the relevant Article(s) of the Constitution.

OR

- describe one recent example of the Constitution being followed/an example of the separation of powers and system of checks and balances working in practice and cite the relevant Article(s) of the Constitution.

Speech must be no longer than 20 minutes, and no shorter than 15 minutes. Speech entry should be recorded and posted to YouTube (640 x 360 minimum, HD preferred) or Vimeo (download enabled). The first line of the video description in the online submission must read: Submitted to Constituting America’s We The Future 2017 Contest www.constitutingamerica.org. The following must be emailed to WeTheFuture2017@yahoo.com: Entry permission form, YouTube or Vimeo link, and written copy of your speech. Pls. include your name, age, and grade on all pages of your entry package.

2. The Short Film should be an original film written and directed by the student. It must be no shorter than five minutes and no longer than ten minutes in length. The subject should be: “Why is the United States Constitution Relevant Today?” The short film may be written, directed and submitted by a team of not more than two people. Film & PSA submissions should be uploaded to YouTube (640 x 360 minimum, HD preferred) or Vimeo (download enabled). The first line of the video description in the online submission must read: Submitted to Constituting America’s We The Future 2017 Contest www.constitutingamerica.org The completed Entry/Permission form with signed parental consent must be emailed, with YouTube or Vimeo link, and script to WeTheFuture2017@yahoo.com with subject line: GRADUATE/LAW SCHOOL ENTRY (INSERT CATEGORY ENTERING). The student’s name, grade and age must be on each page of the script.

Section IV- Judging Process

After the expiration of the Contest Period, the judges selected by Constituting America will review all entries and submissions which comply with these Official Rules and Regulations and select one (1) winning speech, and one (1) winning short film. Judges reserve the right to not make an award in any category and/or make multiple awards per category. Entries will be evaluated based on the following criteria:

1. Adherence to instructions stated in Section III
2. Speech: originality, neatness, spelling, grammar and form, level of support generated for your cause
3. Short film: originality, appeal to college age group.

The odds of winning are proportional to the amount of entries received. Winners will be notified sometime after September 17, 2017.

Section V – Awards and Prizes
